A few reminders

Singing, talking, and sharing books with babies builds their brains and their language skills.

Research shows that babies hear words while they are still in the womb.

If You're Happy and You Know It (Since I Love You Very Much)

RHYME
Old Mother Goose when she wanted to wander, would fly through the air on a very fine gander.

Quick Tips!

After birth, babies can see objects 8 to 10 inches from their face.

Tummy time should always be supervised by an adult.

To your child, your voice is the most beautiful sound in the world.

Feel free to read just one or two pages aloud, or don't read at all. Simply talk about the book!

Board books are safe and easy to clean. Newborns prefer high contrast black and white pictures.

There are many ways to read a story... and even sing a song!

Show the pictures

Talk about the pictures

Ask questions and answer them!

The brain likes to remember happy moments.

Your song is even more powerful if you smile when you sing.

Let's play Peek-a-boo. Peek-a-boo is a fun way to distract your baby.

"I've Got Something in My Pocket"
I've got something in my pocket, it belongs across my face. I keep it very close at hand, in a most convenient place. I'm sure you couldn't guess it if you guessed a long, long while. So I'll take it out and put it on, it's a Great Big Loving Smile!

Eye Winker, Round & Round the Garden, This is Bill Hernandez

Words are full of fun sounds

Tapping out their names on the drum enables babies to become aware of syllables and the sounds in words.

Rum, Pum, Pum

What's your name?
What's your baby's name?

Don't have a drum? Clap babies hands or bounce your finger while baby holds onto it.

SESSION 1

And we walk!

Movement Words

- Sway
- Creep
- Tip Toe
- Dance
- Walk
- Slide

Try these out!

Freeze games help practice stopping!

Babies learn movement words by acting them out.

And We Walk... & Handy Spandy

Babies love listening to and making animal sounds

Making animals sounds helps children hear the small sounds in words. This helps with learning how to read.

Wiggle! March!
Talk or sing about the pictures.

Little frog, on a log
Sings his song, all day long.
Ribbit, ribbit, ribbit,
Ribbit, ribbit, ribbit.
(gives kisses)

I Went to Visit the Farm One Day & Little Frog on a Log

Pizza, pizza hot.
Pizza, pizza cold,
Pizza, pizza in the box, nine days old.
Some like it hot.
Some like it cold.
Some like it in the box,
nine days old. ICK!

Shakers away, shakers away,
put your shakers away today. (repeat)
Singing clean up songs makes cleaning up fun!

Changing the words to songs and rhymes keeps them fun.

We All Shake Our Shakers, Pizza, Pizza, Hot & Shakers Away

Singing lullabies calms and relaxes babies.

Rocking motions and hearing your heartbeat calms them down.

Too Ra Loo Ra Loo Ra, too Ra Loo Ra Lie,
You're my little hatchling,
so here's a lullaby.
Too Ra Loo Ra Loo Ra, too Ra Loo Ra Lie,
Let's both relax together,
resting - you and I.

Too Ra Loo Ra Loo Ra
